Making education fun!

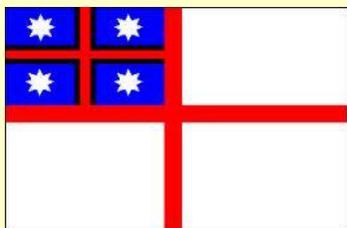

TREATY GROUNDS
Our birthplace Te pitowhenua

Explore the Birthplace of our Nation. Walk in the footsteps of Māori & European Treaty-makers. View Ngātokimatawhaorua & hear voyaging stories of Aotearoa's first settlers. Compare their lives with that of the first official British Resident. Learn the symbolism of our nation's first flags. Hear about the beautiful carvings in the Whare Runanga. Enjoy an educational and fun experience that is unforgettable.

POMPALLIER MISSION & PRINTERY

Discover the French side to the Birthplace of our Nation. Enjoy hands-on experiences in New Zealand's only existing pioneer printery & tannery. Hear stories of Catholic missionary work, Māori passion for literacy & for books made here. Learn about Pompallier's part in the Treaty of Waitangi & ensuing War. And more.

Serious fun!

Russell Museum tells the story of the Battle of Kororāreka when, only 5 years after Treaty- signing at Waitangi, Hone Heke felled the British flagstaff on Maiki Hill. See early Māori taonga, a 1:5 scale model of Cook's Endeavour, & whaling relics. Pick up a Heritage Trail brochure to help you uncover the stories written in our town's streets.
